HONORING JAMES ALLEN CLOAR

HON. RUSS CARNAHAN

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. CARNAHAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to give recognition for outstanding service by James Allen Cloar to the residents and City of Saint Louis as President and CEO of the Partnership for downtown St. Louis.

Mr. Cloar worked to revitalize America's heartland by improving the living conditions and safety of one of America's greatest cities, the City of Saint Louis.

He brought over a 100 new businesses and 11,000 new residents back into the downtown area of the City of Saint Louis. In doing so, Mr. Cloar secured accolades and recognition for the City, including the All American City Award.

Madam Speaker, James Cloar enjoys the love and support of his family, and I would also like to recognize them.

He is so proud of Anne Bock Cloar, his wife of over 40 years; his daughters Tracy Cloar Rogers and Jennifer Cloar Smith, along with their husbands; and his granddaughters Haley, Alexandria, Skyla, and Phoebe.

I commend Mr. Cloar's dedication to his family, his service to the City of St. Louis, and his work to bring about the revitalization of City's downtown area.

RECOGNIZING TERESA MORA FOR HER SERVICE TO THE FIRST DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

HON. PAUL RYAN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. RYAN of Wisconsin. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor Miss Teresa Mora. Teresa is the Field Representative in my district office and has worked with me for more than ten years.

Teresa's personal experience is an embodiment of the American Dream. She was born in Mexico to a loving and close family. They recognized the opportunities for prosperity and freedom which the United States held out to them, and made the difficult decision to come to this country in pursuit of a better life for themselves and their children.

Teresa is conscientious and loyal. Her unique experience has given her a great love for her adopted country combined with passion to help others of Hispanic background who make up a considerable part of Wisconsin's First Congressional District.

Teresa's sincerity and heart of gold help her to win the confidence of immigrants who need assistance in working with the federal government. With bilingual skills, she works comfortably within the immigrant community to build trust and candor to help solve documentation and other government-related problems.

In her role as a representative working in a conservative Republican Congressional office,

Teresa has at times encountered hostility based on misunderstanding. Teresa is never partisan, but her positive experience as an American citizen empowers her with a sincere message of hope and success in this country that never fails to open minds and hearts.

I am proud to acknowledge the excellent service and positive efforts Teresa Mora has made over ten years to make life better for the families of Wisconsin's First Congressional District.

MICHAEL CAVANAUGH

HON. MICHAEL E. McMAHON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. McMAHON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Michael Cavanaugh, a dedicated Staten Islander, dear friend, tireless community organizer, and great humanitarian who will be retiring this year.

Mr. Cavanaugh was born to Daniel and Mary Cavanaugh on June 23, 1949, in Astoria, Queens. He attended McKee Vocational High School, and served as an Apprentice with Local Union 3. He went on to a career as an outstanding electrician. He has dedicated the last 15 years of his working career as a local shop steward and active union representative fighting for the best benefits and working conditions for his fellow workers.

Throughout his career, he has always advocated for the interest of his fellow electricians and his community. He has served as the Vice President of the Dakota Group, a local group of individuals dedicated to helping our community. He has also served as the Legislative Coordinator for the Staten Island Electrical Club, North Shore Democratic Club, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Brighton Kiwanis, and the Special Olympics.

Mr. Cavanaugh is known for his neverending generosity. In addition to the many groups that he belongs to and supports, Mr. Cavanaugh also, on his own time and without any remuneration, has helped numerous people, families and organizations on Staten Island. To name a few, he has helped replace the lighting at St. Peter's Church, helped install a scoreboard at St. Paul's School, and he has helped many homeless people fix up apartments so they can have a decent place to live. Mr. Cavanaugh is one of the most generous people I know.

Mr. Cavanaugh has helped the campaigns of just about every Staten Island Democratic candidate over the last 15 years. His assistance has been essential to the success of many campaigns including mine. No job is too big or too small for Mike. He will help in any way possible.

Outside of his professional life, Mr. Cavanaugh is a devoted family man. He has been married to his wife, Monica, for the past 35 years. He is the father to his son, Daniel, and daughter, Erin. He is also the beloved grandfather to James. In addition to his family, Mike is totally devoted to his wonderful Golden Retriever, Rusty.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in commending Mr. Cavanaugh on his dedication to the people of Staten Island and wish him a happy and healthy retirement.

ON THE RETIREMENT OF COLONEL STEPHEN M. CHRISTIAN, UNITED STATES ARMY

HON. RUSH D. HOLT

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. HOLT. Madam Speaker, I want to take a moment to honor a fine officer who will shortly be leaving active duty. Colonel Stephen M. Christian will be retiring from the United States Army on October 21, 2009 after more than 30 years of active military service, culminating as Garrison Commander for the United States Army Garrison, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey.

Colonel Christian enlisted in the Army in 1978 and in 1984 attended Officer Candidate School and was commissioned as an Air Defense Artillery Officer. Throughout his career Colonel Christian has held numerous high level command and staff positions, including tours with the 7th Infantry Division (Light) at Fort Ord, California; the 25th Infantry Division (Light) at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii; and the 10th Mountain Division at Fort Drum, New York. He commanded at the Battalion level on two occasions and served two tours of duty in Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, during which he was awarded two Bronze Star medals. Colonel Christian's civilian education includes a Master's of Science in Administration and a Master of Security Strategy from the National War College, National Defense University. Colonel Christian is married to Laura Christian and they have two adult children, Captain Nicholas Christian and Leslie Roop.

Madam Speaker, our active duty families make many sacrifices for the rest of us, and this is especially true of those who make the military their career. I thank COL Christian for his long and honorable service to our nation, and I wish him and his wife Laura the very best as they prepare to enter a new phase in their life journey together.

RECOGNIZE CHIPS FAMILY VIOLENCE CENTER IN ERWIN, TN DURING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

HON. DAVID P. ROE

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Mr. ROE of Tennessee. Madam Speaker, October is Domestic Violence Awareness month, and great organizations such as CHIPS Family Violence Center in Erwin, Tennessee are educating the community on the dynamics of domestic violence.

This exceptional organization has an important mission to provide shelter and service to victims of domestic violence and their children, ultimately, enabling them to begin and maintain a life free of violence.

This month, CHIPS Family Violence Center in Erwin is holding their third annual candle light service. This event will not only educate the community, it will also honor victims and bring attention to their struggle.

Madam Speaker, the help, opportunity and encouragement provided by CHIPS Family Violence Center is helping families throughout
